2. In early February, two villas on Frauenplan, which had once been occupied by high-ranking officers but were unoccupied following the return of the troops in the fall of 1951, were taken over by a general and several field-grade officers. The general, who had one of the villas for himself, had been observed in Naumburg in the past years.
3. In early February, the former Kuchenhaus restaurant at the intersection of Amsdorferstrasse and Badstrasse, which housed a cooperative store, was requisitioned as additional ration supply point for Soviet troops.

4. At about 7:30 a.m. on 7 February, 2 x 10-mm AT guns with their prime movers, 2 trucks and 1 field kitchen were unloaded at the Naumburg main railroad station.

5. Almost all military vehicles observed in Naumburg had blackout driving lights and their normal headlights painted over except for a narrow slit in the center.
